MORE TAFFY. BY NED HARRIS (WILLARD'S).

Over the garden gate bends a man, Giving a maiden taffy. Somebody's getting as mad as he can— Tis her sire-Cornelius Mahaffy.

Over his bunioned feet, ham-like hands Are pulling his boots on quickly. Still at the garden gate Oscar stands— Soon will his smile be sickly.

There's a whizzing sound and a smothered cry She's alone like a house that is haunted. But hap ly for him there's a doctor nigh. Who will put arnica just where it's wanted. BRICKS.

A French Scientist's Views. To the Editor of The Republican:

The following is the translation of a letter dated January 28, from a French gentleman, a scientist, at present in the interior of France, who has resided for years in the United States, and will return in a few months to make this country his home. He is not connected in any manner with the Nicaragua Company. His ideas and opinions will be read with interest:

"I see that nothing has yet been done by your Government to show the French government its error in protecting the financial projects of M. de Lesseps. It is a grave error to leave the United States Minister at Paris without instructions under the pretext that the French government does not interfere in favor of M. de Lesseps. From the very interfere in favor of M. de Lesseps. From the very first day of his projects the French government declared itself in his favor, giving special leaves of absence to Frency navy officers (Wyse and Reelns), to a mining engineer (Boutan), and to an engineer of roads and bridges, all employees of the government, and of whom M. de Lesseps has taken care to proclaim their official character. Moreover, the French government gave him the cross of the Legion of Honor to distribute at will of the Legion of Honor to distribute at will; finally the French government has the powerto refuse that the shares be quoted at the Bourse.

"All these facts are sufficient for the Secretary of State to write to Minister Noyes to read his views, and leave a copy with the Secretary of Foreign Affairs in France. These actions of the French government are not friendly toward the United States, but the contrary, and any action on the part of the French government would have arrested, or will still arrest, all of the manoeuvres of M. de Lesseps.

Lesseps.

"I wrote an article for the newspapers a fortnight previous to the subscription, when M. de Lesseps put out his prospectus and handbills, in order to forewarn the French people that there was in America a Nicaragua company. All of the papers to whom I sent my article refused to publish it, as they had all been bought up by M. de Lesseps, who subsidized them; he spent 3,000,000 frames for this purpose. The intelligent public did not fall into M. de Lesseps' trap, but the masses who save and have money were caught; it could who save and have money were caught; it could not be otherwise after the great drum-beating of M. de Lesseps, the support of the Suez Canal and of the French government.

In France there is a great deal of cant. Fory it was military; now it is humanitarian y affect to work in the interest of humanity. M. de Lesseps knows very well the weak and sel-ish vanity of the French people. Formerly, I I very much esteemed M. de Lesseps; now I con-sider him the greatest liar and charlatan I know. Very little action on the part of your Govern-ment would be necessary to apprise public opinion in France. For a long time France has avoided by diplomatic complications. A slight expression f di-pleasure to the government of France would have an extraordinary effect, and it is necessary that it should be done. The action of Mr. Thompson, ex-Secretary of the Navy, has given M. de Lesseps great power. He says American officials are for sale and can be bought, as formerly in Egypt he bought the Pachas and Khedive."
